

SLABBINCK®
IN SERVICE OF LITURGY SINCE 1903

2022

MADE IN BRUGES, BELGIUM, SINCE 1903 1

A T E L I E R SLABBINCK®

The origins of Atelier Slabbinck date back to 1903, the year Hendrik Slabbinck, skilled gold embroiderer, started his workshop in Bruges Belgium.

The Slabbinck family has worked to make the company an international reference for liturgical vestments.

The craftsmanship, eye for detail service-minded company culture are well known.

With our dedicated team, we specialised in customized and bespoke projects and guarantee the highest quality.

Liturgy is touched by the beauty of creation and it is transfigured through prayer.

We, at Slabbinck, are in service of the liturgy and people, such as yourself.

While remaining true to this tradition, each day we strive to be creative and to look for new ways of expressing this beauty.

• Altar cloth, style 63

When ordering, indicate measurements for finished altar cloth; A = length of mensa;
B = side drops;

C = depth of mensa; D = front drop; E = back drop.

If depth (C) is over the width of the fabric, the altar cloth is finished with a seam.

There is 1 yard minimum charge.

The necessary fabric is added to the altar cloth (style 63), to compensate for shrinking during first laundering. Due to the different washing and laundering procedures, the fabric may shrink more or less than anticipated. Therefore, all altar cloths are provided with a large hem of 1½" to be adjusted if necessary.

Prewash is possible if requested, supplement is $ 12.50
